

Personal and Cultural Identity Project – Literary Studies 11

Students of LITERARY STUDIES 11

Develop a project that communicates how experiences shape identities – personal, social, cultural - and how do these identities construct meaningful and personal connections with self, texts, and the world.

Find an example of poetry, prose, and non-fiction that clearly conveys how the experiences of the author reveal identity and how this identity forms connections to self, text, and the world. Each resource should be capable of analysis. That is, it has depth to convey meaning. Develop a presentation that analyzes each of these three pieces for their...

- use of language to convey meaning
- textual structure and development
- use of experience to convey identity
- connection to the self, text, and the world

In your analysis, be as specific as possible. For example, do not simply say that your chosen short story uses language effectively. What language is used? Be specific about how the language conveys identity. What identity is revealed? What literary devices or stylistic elements do the authors use to connect to place, to others and to themselves? Quote each piece to support your analysis.

- MLA formatting – includes in-text citation and a Works Cited List
- 3-5 pages
- Double-spaced
- Times New Roman font, size 12
- Formal tone
- Mature vocabulary

ASSESSMENT (24/24):

Learning Target - Exemplary (6/6): Final product demonstrates a rich understanding of how experiences shape identity and how identity connects to self, text, and the world. This understanding results from thorough research and close analysis of text structure and language. Connections and experiences are communicated clearly and respectfully in order to build a shared understanding.

Ideas/Content - Exemplary (6/6): Exemplary development of ideas. Content is clear, concise and true. Accomplishes the purpose with originality, individuality, maturity, and sophistication.

Reflection and Insight - Exemplary (6/6): Complex connections and original ideas are included in a thoughtful response that includes specific examples of the student's learning process and growth, which has been the result of informed, fact-based, data-driven research.

Conventions/Sentence Fluency - Exemplary (6/6): Sentence structure and vocabulary are varied, skillfully written (or spoken), and carefully chosen. Composition shows maturity in vocabulary, structure, and organization. Reflection on the quality of writing is evident, resulting in few or no errors.