

Create a Reading Plan

Instructions

Create a Reading Plan:

1. Divide your book into FOUR sections (look at the chapters and ensure that the sections are approximately the same size).
2. Your Reading Plan should include the following:
 - o Your Full Name, Your book title, and Author
 - o Total Page Numbers in your book
 - o Book Sections: 4 Sections by page number AND chapter.
 - o Date you want to start and Date you want to finish.
 - o Dates you want each section completed, and the number of pages you need to read each day.

Below is an example of a Reading Plan.

Reflect on the following quotes, consider what you already know, what you wonder, and what you hope to learn.

“We ought to recognize that our greatest battle is not with one another but with our pain, our problems, and our flaws. To be hurt, yet forgive. To do wrong, but forgive yourself. To depart from this world leaving only love. This is the reason you walk.”

— Wab Kinew, The Reason You Walk: A Memoir

“I am the reason you walk. I created you so that you might walk this earth. I am the reason you walk. I gave you motivation so you would continue to walk even when the path became difficult, even seemingly impossible. I am the reason you walk. I animated you with that driving force called love, which compelled you to help others who had forgotten they were brothers and sisters to take steps back towards one another. And now, my son, as that journey comes to an end, I am the reason you walk, for I am calling you home. Walk home with me on that everlasting road.”

— Wab Kinew, The Reason You Walk

“We have a choice in life—we can choose how we are going to behave. We can determine whether we reflect the good around us or lose ourselves in the darkness.”

— Wab Kinew, The Reason You Walk

“Reconciliation is realized when two people come together and understand that what they share unites them and that what is different about them needs to be respected.”

— Wab Kinew, The Reason You Walk: A Memoir
